English Country Dances

How to do them

This page contains the movements, instructions, actions for a number of easy English country-dances as called by Gerry Jones, and the Liverpool Country Dance Band.

They are offered for a couple of reasons.

To help some people who have done these dances at a barn-dance or dance-class, and are trying later to remember "what that dance was".

For people who are soon going to a folk-dance or ceilidh, and would like to have some idea of what they will be doing.

For other callers, especially beginners in the trade, who would like some suggestions or variations, of simple dances for beginners.

down the outside in single file.

3. Meet your partners at the far end, and come up the middle has couples holding a hand.

4. Clever bit comes now; couples peel off and go down the outside as couples, alternating, each couple going the opposite way to the couple in front of them.

5. At the bottom, meet another couple, and join up to come up as Lines of Four/ Two Couples.

6. At the top, just split the Line of Four, and go down the nearest side, still as couples.

7. At the end, return into couple following couple coming up the hall, holding one hand. In turn each new Top Couple must turn to face away from the Band, swapping hands, and go UNDER the arms of the Second Couple,

OVER the Third Couple, and on like that till they run out of couples.

Then they turn around and start RESPONDING to the next couple coming down, and continue until they are back in their home/original place. This can take forever.
